requirements, in any event.

<sup>2</sup> Since 2006 it has not been possible to incorporate a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital. It is therefore no longer accurate to state that a new CLG doesn't have share capital.
