

Robert Aubrey	Robert is a retired Chartered Engineer, formerly Management Consultant/ Chief Executive of an Engineering Company.
Peter Brooks	Peter is an experienced Headteacher with over twelve years in a secondary Headship role. Prior to that, Peter's subject specialism and passion was for Physical Education and he held Heads of Department, Pastoral Leadership and Deputy Headteacher roles before moving into Headship. In 2011 he was appointed a National Leader in Education (NLE), with Altrincham College named as a National Support School (NSS). Following that appointment, the school has developed a strong tradition of working in partnership and collaborating with other schools across the GM region. Being appointed as Executive Principal of the South Manchester Learning Trust is a natural and formal extension of his outlook and educational ethos. Peter was also the Chair of Trafford LA Funding Forum.
Jane Brophy	Jane enjoys dual careers as an NHS Allied Health Professional, and in Local Government, as an elected Councillor and Parliamentary Campaigner. Jane is an elected Liberal Democrat Councillor for Timperley Ward, Altrincham.
Alison Hewitt	Originally from the private sector, Alison qualified as a Chartered Management Accountant and later joined KPMG Consulting to deliver Transformation and Business Process Improvement Programmes across the UK. In 2002, she moved into the Public Sector focusing on large scale Regional Commissioning in the Northwest. Following the dissolution of the RDAs Alison came to work in healthcare, initially in provider finance, but soon moving to work for two newly formed CCGs in Lancashire as Head of Health Economics, Performance and Programme Management.

Margo Kane	Margo Kane is a Fellow of the CIPD, working as the Director HR/OD for Wythenshawe, Trafford, Withington and Altrincham hospitals which are part of Manchester Foundation Trust; the largest Trust in England. An experienced director who has worked across the NHS, Local Government and Higher Education sectors for nearly 30 years. As a HR/OD professional Margo is experienced at aligning the people agenda to organisational priorities and facilitating large scale culture change. Margo is also an executive coach and is passionate about helping people realise their potential. As a Community Governor for Altrincham College and Vice Chair of South Manchester Learning Trust Margo is proud to support our young people in gaining an outstanding educational experience.
Susan Wildman	Susan is a former theatre Chief Executive with a background in journalism, PR and Communications. She was previously a member of the Chartered Institute of Public Relations, and formerly the Director/Head of Communications of LA/Probation Service. Susan is an experienced community governor (originally a parent governor).
Cara Afzal	Cara Afzal is a Programme Director for Digital and Data working within Health and Care at Health Innovation Manchester, which is part of an academic health science and innovation network, bringing NHS, academic, and Industry partners together to transform the health and well-being of Greater Manchester's citizens. Cara's past roles have been within the NHS, academic, and local government sectors on large-scale research and innovative transformation programmes. Cara is a keen advocate of lifelong learning, having witnessed the transformative power of continuous learning, not just in acquiring knowledge but fostering personal and professional growth. She sees education as a journey of perpetual discovery and empowerment.